OPERA EN MUSIQUE,

M. DC. LXXXVIII.

A U R O Y.

IRE,

Nous venons presenter à VOSTRE MAJESTE' avec une confiance entiere dans sa bonté, & une juste défiance de nostre genie les premiers Ouvrages de Musique que nous avons mis sur le Theatre: C'est par un principe de reconnoissance que nous osons offrir à VOSTRE MAJESTE' ce petit Opera, puisque c'est seulement l'accuëil favorable dont Elle daigna honorer à Marly les petits Divertissemens d'Anet, qui nous a donné la hardiesse de l'entreprendre, & qui nous a en mesme temps inspiré les talens pour les faire. Cette mesme protection de VOSTRE MAJESTE', SIRE, avoit formé le genie de nostre pere: La nature n'avoit fait que l'ébaucher en luy: Ce sont vos bontez, vos conseils, vos applaudissemens qui l'ont perfectionné, & il n'est enfin devenu un genie superieur & sublime, que parce qu'il avoit à travailler pour le plus grand Roy du monde, & qu'il avoit à plaire à un

Roy d'un goût plus exquis & plus délicat que tout le reste des hommes :
Ainsi loin de souhaiter seulement ce génie que nous pouvions attendre comme un bien héréditaire ; c'est votre protection seule que nous implorons, sûrs d'un succès au dessus de nos espérances, dès que VOSTRE MAJESTÉ daignera jeter le moindre regard favorable sur ce que nous tenterons ou pour vos divertissemens, S I R E, ou pour ceux de votre famille sacrée ; toujours disposée à suivre la justesse de votre goût, & à accorder l'honneur de sa bienveillance à ceux que Vous en jugerez di-gnes : C'est ce que nous tâcherons de mériter par un travail assidu & par une application continuelle à l'Estude de la Musique, & plus que tout cela par une soumission aveugle à vos volontés ; & par un très-profond respect, avec lequel nous sommes,

S I R E ;

DE VOSTRE MAJESTÉ.

Les très-humbles, très-obéissans
Serviteurs & Sujets,
LOUIS ET JEAN-LOUIS
DE LULLY.

AIR pour le vol des Aquilons.

This musical score is written for a piano and features a variety of musical notations. The first system includes a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature (C). The melody is composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together in groups. The accompaniment is written in the bass clef, featuring a steady eighth-note pattern. The score is divided into systems by horizontal lines. The first system contains five staves, the second system contains four staves, and the third system contains three staves. The notation includes various musical symbols such as clefs, key signatures, time signatures, and note values. The overall style is characteristic of 19th-century musical notation.

AIR POUR LES NYMPHES.

515

This musical score is for a piece titled "AIR POUR LES NYMPHES." It is arranged for a five-part setting, likely for voices or instruments. The score is written on ten staves, organized into five systems of two staves each. The notation is in a historical style, featuring a treble clef on the first staff of each system and a bass clef on the second. The music is composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, with various rests and accidentals (sharps, flats, and naturals) indicating pitch and rhythm. The first system contains five staves of music, followed by a system of five empty staves. The third system also contains five staves of music, followed by another system of five empty staves. The fifth system contains five staves of music, followed by a final system of five empty staves. The notation is dense and detailed, typical of 17th or 18th-century musical manuscripts.

Air pour les Zephirs & pour les Nymphes.

This musical score is for a piece titled "Air pour les Zephirs & pour les Nymphes" from the opera "Zephire et Flore". The score is written for a full orchestra and includes parts for the flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, and strings. The music is in 2/4 time and features a variety of melodic and harmonic textures. The score is divided into two systems, each containing five staves. The first system includes a flute part, an oboe part, a clarinet part, a bassoon part, and a string part. The second system includes a flute part, an oboe part, a clarinet part, a bassoon part, and a string part. The music is characterized by its light and airy quality, with many trills and grace notes. The score is written in a clear and legible hand, with a good use of dynamics and articulation marks.

The second system of musical notation, continuing from the first system. It features a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is written on a five-line staff. The notation includes various note values, rests, and accidentals. Above the staff, there are several markings: a '5' above the first measure, a '4' above the second measure, an 'X' above the third measure, and '6 6' above the final measure. Below the staff, there are markings: a '6-6' below the fourth measure and a '✓' below the final measure. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The first system of musical notation consists of a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody begins with a quarter rest, followed by a quarter note G4, a quarter note A4, and a quarter note B4. This is followed by a half note C5, a half note B4, and a half note A4. The system concludes with a double bar line.
